The Auxiliary Update By Jackie Miller, President

Hello Everyone,

Well, true to form, December was as busy as always! Our December meeting was a working one. The ladies brought in their sewing machines and wheelchair bags and lap blankets were made for the Veterans at the VA.

A special thanks to Doris Rindahl, Sue Trussel and all the other volunteers for your hard work! Also, Thanks to Chris Henkel for your work in finding a female Veteran to sponsor, it is always greatly appreciated! The Christmas Party and Bake sale was not only a lot of fun, but very successful.

Membership currently stands at 167. Please, if you know of anyone who is interested, we would love to have them! Contact Doris or myself if you need additional information.

We are currently working on an exciting new project...come join us for our next meeting to find out what it is! The next meeting is February 14th at 6:30 PM, see you there.

Please watch the calendar for up-coming Pancake Breakfasts, events and activities. Also, we are collecting ladies business attire. The clothes will be used to help women who are applying for jobs and are in need of proper business wear. If you have any gently used items you wish to donate, please bring them into the Legion.

Last but not least, a special thank you to Sharon Braaten. My experience of working with you was always wonderful and worry-free! Good luck to you, and please know, you will be missed.

God Bless our Troops and their families. Peace

"Almighty God, we remember our fallen members who served our nation toward our nations ideals of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. Keep them in your loving kindness and remember that they are in our Post Everlasting. Lift up their families in this time of grief. Relieve them of their anguish and leave only the cherished memory of the sacrifices they made at the alter of Liberty. Our nation is grateful for their service. The American Legion also offers gratitude for their service and sacrifice during a time of war.

God Bless us all and God Bless America"

The Service Officer's Corner
Craig Hartman

I am often asked what motivates me to volunteer time to the Legion and Veterans causes in general and over the years I have come to the conclusion that it is not an overwhelming sense of patriotism or love of country, although they play a part in it.

I think that what drives me and a very large number of my comrades that served during the Vietnam Era is the way we were treated while in uniform. There are very few of us that can not relate to the total disrespect and sometimes vile treatment that we were subjected to for simply doing our jobs.

I for one made up my mind years ago that I would never allow another U.S. Service Member to be subjected to the treatment that I witnessed so many years ago. I think that an editorial that I ran across in the January edition of the DAV magazine pretty much sum's it up.

Marine Salutes Vietnam Vets

"A guy gets time to think over here in Iraq and I was thinking about all the support we get from home. Sometimes it's overwhelming. We get care packages at times faster than we can use them. There are boxes and boxes of toiletries and snacks lining the center of every tent; the generosity has been amazing. So, I was pondering the question: "Why do we have so much support?"

In my opinion, it all comes down to one thing: Vietnam veterans. We treated them so poorly back then. The stories are nightmarish of what our returning warriors were subjected to. It is a national scar, a blemish on our country, an embarrassment to all of us. After Vietnam, it had time to sink in. The guilt in our collective consciousness grew. It shamed us. Starting during the Gulf War, when the first real opportunity arose to stand up and support the troops, we did. We did it to support our friends and family going off to war. But we also did it to right the wrongs from the Vietnam era. We treat our troops of today like the heroes they are, acknowledge and celebrate their sacrifice and rejoice at their homecoming, instead of spitting on them. The lesson was learned in Vietnam and we are all better because of it. Everyone who has gone before is a hero. They are celebrated in my heart.

When I get back home, I'm going to make it a personal mission to thank every Vietnam vet I encounter for their sacrifice. Because if nothing else good came from that terrible war, one thing did. It was the lesson learned on how we treat our warriors. I am the beneficiary of their sacrifice. Not only for the freedom they, like veterans from other wars, endured, but for how well our country now treats my fellow Marines and me. "
